12. RACE OFFICER DUTY

12.1. This instruction applies to competitors who are rostered by the Organizing Authority to perform race officer duty for a scheduled race in the series.

12.2. A competitor who performs race officer duty and is unable to compete in a race due to fulfilling this duty shall be entitled to average points for that race.

12.3. (a) In accordance with Appendix A9(a) of the Racing Rules of Sailing, the competitor will be scored the average of their points from all other races in the series (excluding races scored as DNC, DNS, DNF, RET, or DSQ).

12.4. (b) This score will be calculated to the nearest tenth of a point (0.1), and shall not change the scores of other boats.

- 12.5. Scoring Record The score awarded under this instruction will be annotated as “RDG” (Redress Given) in the results.

13. RISK STATEMENT

- 13.1. Rule 3 of the Racing Rules of Sailing states: ‘The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone.’

- 13.2. Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

(a) They are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;

(b) They are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;

(c) They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions;

(d) Their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;

(e) The provision of a race management team, patrol boats and other officials and volunteers by the event organizer does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;

(f) The provision of patrol boat cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances;

(g) It is their responsibility to familiarise themselves with any risks specific to this venue or this event drawn to their attention in any rules and information produced for the venue or event and to attend any safety briefing held for the event;

(i) Their boat is adequately insured, with cover of at least £3million against third party claims.

14. INSPECTIONS

- 14.1. The fact that race officials may conduct inspections of a boat does not reduce the responsibilities of each competitor set out in this Notice of Race.

15. PRIVACY STATEMENT

- 15.1. The personal information you provide to the organizing authority will be used to facilitate your participation in the event. If you have agreed to be bound by the Racing Rules of Sailing and the other rules that govern the event (the rules), the legal basis for processing that personal information is contract. If you are not bound by the rules, the legal basis for processing that personal information is legitimate interest. Your personal information will be stored and used in accordance with the organizing authority's privacy policy. When required by the rules, personal information may be shared with the RYA, your national authority and/or World Sailing. The results of the event and the outcome of any hearing or appeal may be published.
